

Table 1. Natural Communities in Orange County and the Natural Areas in which they occur Names of the communities from Schafale and Weakley (1990)	Page 2 of 2
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------

PALUSTRINE COMMUNITIES

Community, Abundance, and General Location	Selected Sites
Floodplain Pool Rare to uncommon; in floodplains	N10
Low Elevation Seep Uncommon; at bases of slopes	E10, E14, N10
Piedmont Alluvial Forest Common in stream valleys	C03, E08, E11, E13, E14, M08, N11
Piedmont Bottomland Forest Common in broad stream valleys	B01, E05, E10, M12, N11
Piedmont Levee Forest Rare due to absence of large streams	C02
Piedmont Swamp Forest Rare; found here only in Triassic Basin areas	B03, M11, M12
Rocky Bar and Shore Uncommon in small streams; mainly in Eno River	E11
Semipermanent Impoundment Rare; mostly beaver ponds	L01, L02, M05
Upland Depression Swamp Forest Uncommon; in flat, poorly drained upland areas	E11, N02